Sugar Manipulators Still Busily at Important Action by the Convention Sit- Startling Sensation in the Rodwell Will Our New Minister to Hayti Gets Off After Signs That the Octopus Monopoly Workingmen to Be Run for the All His Property Left to a Faith- Carried as a State Passenger on Will Be Defeated.

Efforts to Get the Certificates Listed on The Central Labor Union Platform She Claims to Have Married Him the Stock Exchange.

THE EVENING WORLD'S full exposure of the operations of the Sugar Trust manipulators, made yesterday, is having its effect. It was shown how the recent crash in the price certificates had been engineered by the Trust dictators themselves in order to fleece the ablic which had been induced to load up with their securities at high figures only to be compelled to sell out at a loss, which went to increase the fabulous wealth of the sugar kings, and brought disaster to hundreds of smaller speculators and investors.

Excitement in the market ran high to-day and every one was in a state of excitement as to what move the manipulators will make next. That they are still active is certain, and according to shrewd judges, indications point to the inauguration of a new campaign on the part of the insiders, which will no doubt prove as disastrous in the end to the majority of the crowd who are tempted into trap as it was in the influence of those who control the securities would be largely increased in the speculative market.

It is believed, however, that outsiders will be more cautious this time, for experience has shown many of them that it is not safe to fool with stock which is so absolutely under the control of a gang of manipulators, who are quick to take advantage of every opportunity that the to take advantage of every opportunity that the course of outside speculation may give them. Strenous efforts are being made to have the certificates of the sugar refineries regularly listed at the Stock Exchange. An open market for the certificates has already been established, and under the regulations of the Stock Exchange, if the stock were regularly listed, the influence of those who control the securities would be largely increased in the speculative market.

"The Sugar Trust people have been playing the same cutthroat game ever since they established a market for their certificates," said a prominent Wall street broker to-day, "and the success of their first move ought to be sufficient to put the public on its guard.

"Just now there is a little lull in operations, but there is a good deal going on below the surface that no one knows anything about. All I have to say is look out for squalls or breakers ahead.

"CLEOPATRA" SEES "LA TOSCA."

Mrs. Brown Potter Passes Through Paris on Her Way to London. Paurs, Sept. 30, -Mrs. James Brown Potter as in town last week. She was met in the couvre stores on Saturday shopping, accompanied by a lady friend and Kyrle Bellew.

The party went to the 4heatre in the evening and saw Mme. Sarah Bernhardtin "La Tosca." A pleasant chat was had with Mrs. Potter in her box. She was cheerful, hopeful and in the best of health. She said she could not tell about the future, as her plans had been all upset; but she had no idea of leaving the stage and she hoped to play in New York during the coming Winter, although no date had been fixed. She was still studying "Autony and Cleopatra" and might possibly produce the play in London. She added that her health had greatly improved. She was not staying in Paris; was only there on a flying

Mrs. Potter witnessed the ceremony of the distribution of awards at the Exposition last night and left for London this morning.

NATALIE AND HER SON MEET. More than a Year Has Elapsed Since He

Was Torn from Her Side. BELGRADE, Sept. 30 .- Ex-Queen Natalie paid a visit to her son, King Alexander, to-day. All the foreign representatives, with the exception of the Ambassadors of Germany and Turkey.

afterwards waited upon the ex-Queen. Her arrival last night was pointedly ignored by the Government officials, but she was most enthusiastically received by the crowds, which lined the streets through which she had to pass. On private residences and places of business throughout the city flags were displayed in her honor. The reception was spontaneous, and the enthusiasm of the people was indescribable. It is estimated that there were 50,000 persons in the streets. After a brilliant triumphal progress to her residence the ex-Queen was obliged to ap-pear on the balcony to respond to the plaudits of the multitude.

A CRIMINAL OF ROYAL LINEAGE.

Lord Salisbury's Brother-in-Law Indicted for a Terrible Crime.

LONDON, Sept. 30 .- The trial of the Earl of Galloway, who is charged with having criminally assaulted several children, has been fixed for Oct. 14. It will take place before a Scotch

The Earl of Galloway, who is a man fifty-four years of age, is the brother-in-law of the British Prime Minister, the Marquis of Sali-bury, whose sister, the Lady Mary Arabella Cecil, he married in 1872. Besides being one of the twenty Knights of the Most Ancient Order of the Thistle, he is an And-de-Camp of the Queen, and was formerly Her Majesty's Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. He has no children, and his carldoms of Galloway and Garlies, his Barony of Stewart, and his baronetey will pass at his death to his younger brother.

The Earls of Galloway are of the royal blood of Scotland, and are the representatives of the famous house of Darnley, one of whose members was the murdered husband of Mary Queen of Scots. The Earl of Galloway, who is a man fifty-four

Railway Disaster Near Naples. NAPLES, Sept. 30. - A disastrous railway accident occurred between this city and Foggia today. Two express trains came into collision while passing through a tunnel and twenty carringes were telescoped. The killed and injured number fifty.

Sparks From the Cable. The Pope yesterday gave audience to the Bishop of Oregon at Rome.

It is announced that the Queen will be unable to go to Dublin in the Spring. The Prince of Wales will be asked to open the Art Museum. The sub-criptions to the fund to meet the expenses of Mr. Parnell in his defense before the Farnell Commission have closed. The total amount subscribed is $205,000.

A Successful Pair. The Select Social Club met Sunday evening, and after auditing the accounts of the fair held last week reported a profit of $1,000 for its building lund.

B-PLUS-ONE-What is it ? . ..

ting in Clarendon Hall.

Assembly in All City Districts.

Adopted in its Entirety.

The new Legislative Reform Party, organized by the Central Labor Union and an offshoot of the United Labor Party, met and sat in convention until late last night in Clarendon Hall, but kept its proceedings a profound secret until today, when an Evening World reporter ascerlained what was done. There were delegates from nearly all the trades and labor unions and from the Assembly District organizations of the United Labor party, and among them were many familiar faces of labor leaders who took an active part in the campaign of last Fall

There was also a large contingent of the old United Labor party, including men who had helped on the campaign of Warner Miller and President Harrison, and one of them remarked that they had all got sick of the Republican party and wanted to get into line again with the legitimate labor movement and help on legislation for the laboring ciasses.

Customs inspector John McMackin and several other members of the United Labor Party Executive Committee found it inconvenient to be on hand.

Among the oldstima workers assess.

on hand.

Among the old-time workers present were Matthew Barr of the Tin and Sheet-iron Workers, Edward Conklin of the Progressive Painters, Chairman of the Credential Committee; Bernard Campbell and George Warner of the Housesmiths' Union; Charles foodgers of the Marble Workers' Unions, Sceretary Collins of the Central Labor Union. Walter Keech of the United Order of American Carpenters and Joiners; John J. Garry, of the Stair-Builders' Union, Robert Hamilton, of the U. L. P., of the Sixteeuth, and several men who came from former district organizations not now in existence. district organizations not now in existence.

Typographical Union No. 6 and the Cigar makers unious were conspicuous by the absence makers' unions were conspicuous by the absence of their representatives.

Robert Hamilton was elected Chairman, and the Credential Committee reported delegates from twenty-six trades unions and a dozen Assembly districts.

After carnest discussion the platform of the Central Labor Union was adopted in its entirety as a basis for that of the new party, particular stress being laid on that portion relating to the need of radical amendments to the Conspiracy laws and united agitation of the eight-hour day.

laws and united agitation of the eight-hour day.

It was resolved that the party would nominate candidates for the Legislature in all the city Assembly districts, and that they will be pledged to support all labor measures and work for the amegainent of the Conspiracy laws, if elected. It was also resolved that no bargain or dicker would be made with the old political parties. Nothing was decided about nominating candidates for city, county and state officers, or endorsing the tickets or candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties.

A committee of twenty-five was appointed to present a plan of organization at the next meeting, which will be held subject to the call of that body.

STRATFORD'S COMING CELEBRATION. Music and Militia and Tableaux and Fire works Will Abound.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] STRATFORD, Conn., Oct. 1. -Stratford's celeoration, to occur on Oct. 3, is expected to surpass that of Milford's 250th anniversary. All the military of the State and many civil organizations will participate. The unveiling and dedication of the Soldiers Monument will take place at the close of the march and then there will be a band concert and representation of the following events in tableaux:

The coming of the settlers, trading with the Indians, crossing the ferry, trial of the witch, going to church, the wolf hunt, Gloriana Folsom's wodding, in which the minust will be danced.
The fireworks are to commence at 8 o'clock on Academy Hill, and there will be a very elaborate display.

on Academy Hill, elaborate display.

FATHER LAVELLE DENIES IT.

A Statement that Archbishop Corrigan Is Summoned to Rome.

A statement published in a morning paper that Archbishop Corrigan had been summoned to Rome because affairs in the New York diocese were in an unsatisfactory condition, was denied this morning at the Cathedral residence by Father Lavelle, rector of the parish. "There is no ground for such a statement," he said to an Evenno Would reporter.
"The Archbishop is not going to Rome. The statement that Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Riordan, of San Francisco, and a Western Riordan, of San Francisco, and a Western Bishop were to investigate the Diocese of Cleveland is also untrue. Bishop Gilmour, whose diocese it is, has been a Bishop for seventeen years, and he ought to know how to look after his charge, "

The only official visit to Rome of a Bishop is once in ten years, when he goes at limbur Apostorum to give an account of his diocese. Archbishop Corrigan made this visit three or four years ago.

BASEBALL STANDING THIS MORNING.

The League. Ted or post- fo Lost, posted, picy, 42: 14: 11: 43: 17: 17: 14: 7: 12: 18: 17: 18: 17: 18: 18: 18: 13: 73: 6: 8: 13: 73: 6: 11: 79: 16: 21: 79 80 64 61 60 50 50 40 Chicago
Philadelphia
Cleveland,
Pittsburg
Indianapolia
Washington, A Year Ago To.Day. AMER, ASSOCIATION, Per Won, Zoat. - 80 38 - 75 48 - 77 51 11 77 52 - 54 73 1 47 75

Baseball To-Day.

THE LEAGUE. New York at Pittsburg. Boston at Cleveland. Philadelphia at Indianapolis. Washington at Chicago. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. No games scheduled.

EXHIBITION GAMES. Brooklyn vs. Newark at Washington Park. Metropolitans vs. Cuban Giants at the Pole Grounds.

Did you sit up late last night? Bradgerotine

THAT TRUST RAID. LABOR'S DECISION. HIS COLORED WIFE. DOUGLASS'S ADIEU.

Contest.

ful Black Housekeeper.

Nearly Two Years Ago.

Surrogate Abbott, of Brooklyn, is hearing the evidence in one of the most startlingly unique will contests ever made in this bailiwick. Thomas G. Rodwell, a brother of ex-Fire ommissioner James Rodwell, died at the age of sixty-five years, on June 30, leaving $50,000 worth of property, acquired as a real estate speculator In 1884 Mr. Rodwell made a will bequeathing certain specified properties to his brother and his sisters, Mrs. Frances W. Wingham, of 287 First street; Mrs. Lizzie Ann Walker, 108 Waverley avenue, and Mrs. Elia F. Rodwell, widow of a deceased brother.

Then the will says that : "Considering some substantial recognition is due to my servant. Ella F. Crabness, for the fourteen years of faithful service rendered by her. I hereby give o her the houses and lots 177 Navy street and 310 Hudson avenue,"

But on Jan. 9, 1886, Mr. Rodwell wrote a But on Jan. 9, 1886, Mr. Rodwell wrote a codicil in which he revokes the bequests to his sisters and leaves all the residue of his cestate to his "rainful housekeeper." Mrs. Crabness.

Most stupendous of all, when these relatives went with an undertaker to the house of Rodwell, 177 Navy street, for the body, they were met by this housekeeper, who declared that she was the wife of the dead man, having been married to him in December last.

They removed the body, however, against the protests of the widow, and now the sisters contest the will on the ground that Thomas G. Rodwell was insane; that the will was not properly executed, and that Ella F. Crabness exercised undue infinence over their brother.

An Evening World reporter rang the bell at the substantial three-story and basement frame house 177 Navy street this morning. It was answered by a short, pleasant-faced woman.

"I wish to see Mrs. Thomas G. Rodwell," began the reporter.

"Uell, I am Mrs, Rodwell," replied the woman, calmiv.

She was as black as Chloe, and there was a "Well, I am Mrs, Rodwell," replied the woman, calmiy.

She was as black as Chloe, and there was a mass of knotted, kinky hair on her head. She was dressed in mourning sud formed a symphony in black. She was about thirty-five years old.

"I first met Mr. Rodney in 1869," she said in answer to a question, "when I was at service at Dudley Haines's, and I took care of him for Iourteen years.

fourteen years.

"When the blizzard came in March, 1887, he had a room around the corner from my house, and I waded through the snow up to my kness to look after him, because I knew he couldn't to look after him, because I knew he couldn't get out no how.

"Then he said there'd never be another blizgard to catch him that way, and he put me in this house and I furnished it myself.

"Then Mr. Rodwell used to talk about doing right by me. and finally, last Becember, he took me over to New York to a minister named Mr. Stryker and we were married by him.

Mr. Stryker was a colored man I never saw before, but Mr. Rodwell had known him many years. I cannot find him now, though my lawyer, Mr. Underhill, who is executor of my husband's will, has tried hard to get him to attend court as a witness. bands will, has tried and to get him court as a witness.

"As true as God is in Heaven, Mr. Rodwell married me and he was the one who first said we must be married. He said I had been faithful to him and looked after him and had loved him.

him.

"I've got my certificate, and Lord knows I didn't look at his money. I was a widow; Mr. Crabness was a white man that I married down South, and I had a little boy. He is dead now." The woman seemed to have a full heart, and there was the tenderness of sorrow in her subdued and outer vales. dued and quiet voice.
When she called upon God to witness that she old the truth, consciously or unconsciously, her able hand rested on the Book of God which lay n the little centre-table.

CAPTURED BY A BRITISHER.

Marriage of Miss Lydin Henriques to London Stock Broker. Copyright, 1889, by The Press Publishing Company (New York World).

[SPECIAL CABLE DESPATCE TO THE WORLD.]
LONDON, Sept. 30.—The rain was falling today when Mr. "Billy " Henriques's pretty daughter Lydia entered the fashionable Piccadilly Church of St. James the Less for the purpose of being married to Mr. Douglas J. Neame, of the best known stock brokers of the younger generation in London. Mr. Neame known to several clubmen in New York. He crossed the ocean last Spring with the American girl whom he married to-day, and while at New York Mr. "Billy " Henriques introduced him to many of the New York clubmen. Mr. Neame is well connected, rich, fond of sport, and popular.

The wedding was very quiet, only twelve persons being invited. There were no bridesmaids and the best man was John Duff Dawson, a cousin of the Duke of Fife. There were no American friends present except Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tailer, of New York, The bride wore a white Gainsborough hat with a white feather, with a white directoire peau de soie iress, and looked very bright and charming. She received more than two hundred presents. including a quantity of silverware and diamonds. Among those who sent presents from New York were Michael and John Davis, Francis A. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Tailer, Mrs. M. A. Walker, Mrs. C. J. Osborn, and many others from the numerous friends the bride has made since she has been in England.

The couple have gone to the Continent for their wedding tour and are coming back to take a London house at South Kensington, near that of Minister Lincoln.

GOT HIS CHILD BACK.

And Was then Satisfied that His Wife Should tie with Her Lover.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ] POUGHEEPSIE, Oct. 1 .- Joseph Pedro, an Italian, ran away with Ann Eliza Camburn, a farmer's wife, from Stissing, this county. They were traced to this city by the deserted husband, whence they intended to go to New York last night by steamer. They were on the boat, and so was Officer Frank Decker, who arrested them when the boat landed at Highland and brought them here. The woman had her four-year-old son with her.

They were taken before Recorder Dorland, where the woman gave the child to her husband, and the latter being satisfied with getting the youngster back, the parties were discharged and the woman went away with her Italian lover.

Ferry Withdraws from the Contest.

[BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.]

Panis, Oct. 1 .- Jules Ferry withdraws from the contest, and will not appear as a candidate in the election of Sunday next. M. Ferry will go abroad during the Winter. THE brain worker will find his head clear and ready for pusiness after a breakfast of QUARES ROLLED OATS.

Many Difficulties.

Uncle Sam's Kearsarge.

Cannon Salutes as the Man-o'-War Left the Navy-Yard This Morning.

Amid the booming of cannon, the music of the band stationed on the Chicago, and the waving of handkerchiefs on the dock, the United States man-o'-war Kear-arge, bearing old Frederick Douglass, the newly appointed United States Minister to Hayti, and party, railed from the Brooklyn Navy Yard > this morning bound to Port-au-Prince. Light rain fell, and everybody aboard seemed to be uncomfortable, but Mr. Donglass bore up under his seventy-two years of life, and was bright and cheerful, and evidently well pleased at the prospect of the trip. The thip sailed at 9.45 FREDERICK DOUGLASS. o'clock.

Mr. Douglass's part consists of himself, Mrs. Douglass, who is his second wife, to whom he was married in 1884: Mrs. Parker her companion, ex-Haytian Consul, Ebenezer D. Basset, who accompanies the aged minister as a private who accombanies the aged minister as a private sceretary and friend.

During the early hours of the morning many visitors called. Rev. E. H. W. Smith. ex. Minister to Hayti under Grant, and John Little. Past Commander of William Lloyd Garrison Post, G. A. R., were among the number.

An amusing incident occurred just before the lines were cast ashore.

An old lady stepped on board at the last moment and insisted upon seeing Mr. Douglass. She was told that she couldn't; but so persistent was she that she finally overcame all objections and was excepted into Minister Douglass scabin. 'I am Countres Pulaski, niece of Count Pulaski, who loaned Gen. George Washington 87,000,000, "she exclaimed, "and it is now in the United States Treasury illegally withheld from me.'

Considerable comment has been occasioned by the seemingly peculiar action of the Navy Department in sub-trutting the Kearsarge for the Ossipee, and then the sudden change in the commanders of the former vessel.

The Ossipee was detailed to transport the Minister to Hayti, but word came suddenly that Commander Kellong had been relieved from duty. Hints were thrown out that there was a feeling against Mr. Douglass because of his color.

It was then decided to send him by the Kear-

It was then decided to send him by the Kear-Twas then decided to send nim by the Kearsarge, commanded by Capt. Shepard.
Yesterday afternoon an order was received from Washington relieving Capt. Shepard from going down with the Kearsarge, and directing Capt. Whitney to take command.
When Minister Douglass went aboard last night Capt. Whitney was not there to receive him, and did not make his appearance until this morning. morning.

Previous to his departure this morning Mr.
Douglass was interviewed by an Evening World reporter.

"I am very comfortable here," said he, "and the captain and officers have done all in their power to make my voyage as pleasant as possible, "The stories that Commander Kellogg or Com-mander Evans or Capt. Shepard objected to taking me because of my color, in my opinion, are false." are false."

As the Kearsarge moved out of the Navy-Yard a salute of fitteen guns was fired from the receiving ship Vermont, and the band played lively airs.

With fair weather and barring accident, the party should arrive in Port-au-Prince next Monday.

LIZZIE GERLACH'S SAD END.

LETTERS FOUND ON HER BODY THROW LIGHT ON HER LIFE STORY.

The pretty, but unfortunate young girl, who was found dying in Bedford Park yesterday morning, from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid, has been identified, from letters found on her person, as Lizzie Gerlach, daughter of Mrs. Dora Gerlach, a widow living over Henry Degen's meat market, on Broad street, Stapleton, S. I.

About a year ago Lizzie wert to live in the family of Mrs. Franke, in Richmond place, on Boyd's Hill. Here she was employed as a maid. During a part of August and September last the family were in the Catskills and Lizzie was with them. Charles, Mrs. Franke's fifty-year-old bachelor son, however, remained at home. He is a bookkeeper, and could not get away. While at the Catskills Lizzie received the letters by which she was identified. A post-moriem examination at Believie Hospital showed her to be in a delicate condition, and the letters were evidently written by her betrayer. They were all poetmarked Stapleton and signed simply "C."

Lizzie's ab-ence from the Franke residence Sunday night was not a surprise to the family, as they supposed she had gone to visit her mother, according to custom.

The letters found on the dead girl's body sre written in a business-like hand, to disguise which, a poor attempt has been made. Charles Franko denies that he wrote the letters, but savs that he thinks a young man employed on an adolining estate is responsible for Lizzie's despondency, shame and suicide.

ACCUSED OF PLAGIARISM.

Mrs. Burnett's "Little Lord Fauntlerey ' in Dispute. Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, who is widely known as the authoress of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," is the latest one to be accused of plagiarism. The accuser in this instance is Mrs. A. T.

Winthrop, of Baltimore, who wrote to a Mr A. A. Hayes, of Washington, in July, in which she states that in 1880 she submitted to Mrs.
Burnett the manuscript of a book entitled "Wilfred," with a request for a criticism.
Mrs. Burnett, she says, returned the manuscript with a note regretting her inability to more than giance at it.

"Wilfred," was published in February, 1880, and what was her surprise to find, five years later, that Mrs. Burnett had brought out "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which was a very counterpart of "Wilfred."
Mrs. Burnett indignantly denies any plagiarism, and remembers nothing of Mrs. Winthrop's manuscript. she states that in 1880 she submitted to Mrs.

Her own version of hew "Little Lord Faunthere own version of new "Little Lord Faun-tieroy" was written, appeared in last Sunday's World, in which Mrs. Burnett states that the little Lord was taken from a character in real life, and two little boys, whom sie was related to had heard the manuscript read as it was written, and upon their criticism much de-pended. She is of the opinion that the attack upon her

A Level-Headed Grandfather. He bought his clock sof 'urnahed his house at Cow-perthesit's. Iost to 205 Fark Row, and now his descendants have samething to remember him by Young man, if you want good and lasting furniture and carpets go to Cowperthwalt's. Everything for house-keeping.

2 O'CLOCK.

Sheriff Flack, His Son, Meeks and Hart Arraigned.

They Plead Not Guilty and are Admitted to Bail.

Judge Monell Too Sick to Appear in Ganeral Sessions.

Disappearance of Mrs. Raymond, or Cherry, the Woman in the Case.

Four of the Flack divorce conspirators were arraigned before Tudge Gildersleeve in Part II. of the General Sessions at noon to-day.

They were Sheriff James A. Flack, William F. Flack, Joseph Meeks and George W. Hart. Judge Ambrose Monell was too ill to leave his iouse or he would have been there. too. The sensational part of the proceeding is that Sarah Cheny, alias Susan T. Reynolds, against whom there have been found four indictments, three for felony and one for conspiracy, was Inspector Byrnes's detectives have been unable to find her, and as Sheriff Flack won't tell anything about her, she has been able to successfully avoid arrest. The rumor was current this morning at the ourt-house that she had sailed for Europe court-house that she had sailed for Europe some time ago.

There were six separafe indictments, several of which included two or more of the consultances, so that there are now pending against Sheriff Flack four indictment: against William Flack, one indictment: against Jorenh Meeks, three indictments; against Judge Monell, two; Miss Cherry, alian Susan T. Reynolds, four, and against George W. Hart, one indictment.

The four prisoners arraigned were admitted to bail, the amount being fixed by Judge Gildersieeve as follows:

James A. Flack, $5,000; Joseph Meeks, $5,000; George W. Hart, $2,000, and William Flack, $2,000.

25,000; George W. Hart, $2,000, and William Flack, $2,000.

Judge Ambrose Monell's ball was fixed at $5,000, and Miss Cherry's nominally $5,000, but as she was not produced nothing was said about her bail bond.

After the proceedings in court were over the four conspirators, with their counsel, proceeded to the office of Bond Clerk William H. Penney, where their sureties awaited them and their bonds were executed.

Officers will be sent to the house of Judge Monell to execute his bond, as he will probably be unable to leave the house for some time.

The four members of the famous divorce syndicate were on hand at the District-Attorney's office at 10 o'clock this morning.

The warrants issued yesterday by Judge Gildersleev had not left the hands of Mr. Goff, Col. Fellows's assistant, because he knew that all that was necessary to secure the attendance of all the parties wanted, except Miss Cherry, was to send them a notification.

Sheriff Flack and his son, Will, were the first to arrive. They were accompanied by ex-Judges Fullerton and Horace Bussell, who have been retained as their respective counsel in this matter.

Then Joseph Mecks came in. His counsel.

retained as their respective counsel in this matter.

Then Joseph Mecks came in. His counsel. John H. Bird, was with him. and finally Mr. Hart went in by the back door with Col. E. C. Jones, whom he has retained to defend him. There was a long conference in the District-Attorney's private room in regard to the amount of ball to be fixed, and finally Col. Fellows went upstairs and took a seat beside Judge Gildersieeve, to whom he submitted the conclusions that he had arrived at.

By this time it was near 11.30 o'clock. The courtroom was filled with spectators, who were cager to get a look at the people who have lately held so conspicuous a place in the public interest.

Augrehist Lingg's Alleged Sweetheart.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Ida Schmidt, alias Detmar, a young domestic, was arraigned in the olice court this morning, charged with larceny. police court this morning charged with larceny. At the girl's room at Nα. 35 Reynolds street, the officers found two large tranks, næked full of fine dress goods, linens, draperies and other valuable articles. The officers will hold a leves at the station Wednesday morning, and house-keepers who have been plundered can call there to reclaim their property. She worked in several families that, during her stay, missed various articles. She was arrested at the house of Mrs. King, Nα. 550 Dearborn avenue, last evening. A policeman in court claimed to recognize her as the former sweetheart and promised wife of the dead anarchist Louis Lings.

Col. Billings Given a Life Sentence.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD. WATERLOO, Is., Sept. 30.-This afternoon Col. M. E. Billings, convicted of the murder of W. S. Kingsley, made a motion for a new trial. His lawyers claimed that two of the jurors—W. H. Rutter and D. B. Fox—after the verdict was rendered, told Billings they were not convinced of his guilt. Judge Ney denied the motion and sentenced the detendant to the penifentiary at Anamosa for life. Billings took his sentence coolly and gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court, pending which ball was fixed at $7,000. W. S. Kingsley, made a motion for a new trial.

Pittsburg's School Exhibit to Remain. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PITTSEURO, Pa., Oct. 1.-The public school xhibit of this city, which took the gold medal at Paris, will remain as a permanent exhibit in the Pedagogic Museum of France, by request of the directors. Secretary Blaine will come here to present the medals about Christmas.

(From the Clothier and Furnisher, ) Bingley-Have you heard that Pushley is giving away a box of cigars with every suit of clothes? I bought a suit yesterday. Try a cigar?

Travers hting up.—Thanks. I should think (buff), Bingley, that you would be glad (buff) that you only (buff) buy two suits, a year. Cause for Worry. (From the Epoch.)
Hessie-I met Tessie yesterday. The poor thing seems to be worrying about her rich, old husband's health.

Jenuie No wonder; it's three years since she married him, and nobody then thought that he would live more than a few mouths.

Made Specially for Women,

Ten-Year-Old Charlie Peterson Locked A Report that the Whole Slate is in Up in the Tombs.

Caught in the Act of Plundering an Express Office.

He Has Already Been Arrested Three Times for Other Thefts.

Among the desperate criminals now in coninement in the Tombs is Charlie Petersen, a tow-headed, blue-eyed lad, who says he is ten years old, but who does not look more than He is held to await the action of the Grand Jury on charges of burglary and grand

Policeman Horn, of the Fifth Precinct, arrested him last Sunday afternoon in the act of robbing the express office of Augustus Studwell, at 3 Hudson street, the youthful barglar having broken in the window in order to get into the

Charlie appears to be a terrible example of couthful depravity. He has been arrested three youthful deprayity. He has been arrested three times during the sat year for stealing.

Once he robbed an Italian fruit vemiers's stand, another time a candy store, and again he and some other boys stole a horse and wagon standing on one of the docks, and was caught driving along the river front.

He lives at 70 Thomas street with his mother and two little sisters, who are left in his care whenever his mother goes out to work.

He has been to school but one term when he attended the North Moore Street Primary, and he says he had to give it up because he had no shoes to wear.

Charlie admitted to an Evening World reporter who visited him in the Tombs this morning, that he went with a "gang" of older boys, whose headquarters were at North and Hudson streets.

whose headquarters were at North and Hudson streets.

'Mickey Moore kicked me," he said with tears in his eyes, "and made me go into the express office last Sunday. I dun't want to do it, but they said I must. They teld me to take anything I could find. While I was in there the policeman came and arrested me. The other boys all got away."

'How about the other times you were arrested?"

'The other fellers were wid me, but they could run faster and I was always worsted. We only went out togedder on Sundays, I was locked up twice over night, but the Judge always let me go.

let me go."

This time, in spite of the efforts of Mr. Gerry's Society to have the boy committed to their charge, Judge Hogan decided to hold the youthful culprit for the action of the Grand Jury, on account of the enormity of his crime. He will probably be sent to the Reformatory.

BABY BEATRICE WITH EVA.

MRS. ROBERT RAY HAMILTON ALLOWED TO HAVE THE CHILD ONCE MORE.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) May's Landing, Oct. 1.—Acting upon advice from Judge Reed Sheriff Johnson says that he will not take Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton to State prison for a week yet. Yesterday was a great day for Eva. as she was allowed to see Baby Beatrice for the first time since her confinement.

Mrs. Johnson went to Philadelphia in the morning, procured the baby from Mrs. Rupp and returned with her in the evening. At the depot here Beatrice was given an ovation by a depot here Heatrice was given an ovation by a large crowd.

After Eva goes to Trenton Beatrice will remain with Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Hamilton will provide for her. A wealthy Camden lady wants to adopt her, and Dr. Crosby has offered to rear her in his Atlantic City home.

Hamilton is expected to visit Eva again before she goes to Trenton.

A DESPERATE SURGICAL OPERATION.

Healthy and Tanned After His Adirondack Holiday. Mayor Grant was at his desk in the City Hall to-day, after a ten days' hunting trip in the wilds of the Adriondacks. His eye was bright, and there was a beautiful His eye was bright, and there was a beautiful tan on his cheery face, but he absolutely refused to spin any yarns about the slaughter he made among the animals of the North Woods, but set about his business in a bustling, active way, and had received and disposed of fifty callers before noon.

Private Secretary Crain was absent to-day, having gone to Syracuse to assist in nominating the Democratic State candidates.

TOWNS BAVAGED BY FIRE. Great Destruction at Cambrin, Cal., and Grand Haven, Mich.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, ] CAMBBIA, Cal., Oct. 1 .- Fire started at the Proctor House last night and burned the entire business portion of the town, with all provisions. The people are destitute. No lives were lost. Loss $125,000; partly insured. Chicago, Oct. 1.—A special to the Mail from Grand Haven, Mich., says that lown was partly destroyed by fire this morning. No further particulars received.

LIFE IN A SEVERED HEAD.

Witnesses Declare that the Fres Continued to Open and Shut as in Winking. SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

NEGAUNEE, Mich., Oct. 1 .- Strange stories are told by witnesses believed to be reliable, concerning signs of consciousness manifested by the head of Brakeman Thomas Higgins after it had been separated from the body by car wheels resterday. The brakeman fell between wheels resterday. The brakeman feel between two cars and was shockingly mangled. It is de-clared that after the head was picked up the eyes continued for some time to open and close as in the act of winking.

Milan Furious at Natalle's Reception.

BELGRADE, Oct. 1 .- A telegraphic despatch has been received from ex-King Milan, who is at Carlsbad, protesting furiously against the wisit of Natalie and denouncing the Govern-ment for allowing her to have an interview with the young King.

The new Skuptschina is overwhelmingly Radi-cal and pro-Russian.

AN INFANT BURGLAR. TAMMANY FIGHTING.

Danger at Syracuse.

Braves Declare for Hostilities After a Long Secret Session.

Tabor and Wemple Were First Named for the Sacrifics.

And Now Denis O'Brien Meets the Warriors' Opposition.

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, ] Synacuse, N. Y., Oct. 1. - Is the slate broken? Attorney-General Charles F. Tabor and Comptroller Edward Wemple may not be renomi-

Both the County Democracy and Tamman claimed the honor this morning of compassing the defeat of these two gentlemen.
William P. Mitchell said this morning: "Yes, of course Tammany is against them now, after t came here last night and discovered that we had taken the initiative in the matter, and they couldn't be nominated anyway." While the Counties may have taken the nitiative, Tammany Hall by no means followed. Soon after the Tammany train left Alcany ye-terday afternoon the heads of Richard Croker, Fire Commissioner Purroy, Thomas F. Gilroy and Bourke Cockran were together, and an earnest consultation on the question of the ticket was had. In a moment it was whispered about that Tabor was a dead cock in the pit and that Senator John Feley, of Saratoga, would be the Democratic candidate for Attorney-General. As Comptroller Wempe, lives in the same Senatorial district with Senator Foley the question of location would retile the matter of his having a place on the ticket without the colling scandal. Thomas F. Benedict, of Usser County, who was President Cleveland's Public Printer, was accordingly natured as a man who would make a clever candidate for Comptroller.

Some rumprs even had it that Fliott Danforth was not to have the Treasurership, and that it was to be given to John B. Reilly, of Albany. This is probably intrue.

The only contestant for this nomination whom Danforth will have, as it appears this morning, is Internal Revenue Collector William A. Beach, of this city, but Tammany will remember that he was against the Wigwan in that memorable convention of 1879.

Attorney-General Tabor was in the lobby of the Leiand this morning, smiling and confidently predicting his nomination, despite all the opposition to him.

Upstairs D. Lowber Smith, against whom he decided in favor of Tammany in the Commissionership of Public Works fight, was swearing vengeance and working like a beaver to secure his defeat.

"This settles him now," said fat Tom Costi-Tabor was a dead cock in the pit and that his defeat.

"That settles him now." said fat Tom Costi-gan and Judge Power, who sat side by side on a bench outside the dining-room, waiting for a a bench outside the diving-room, waiting for a chance to breakfast.

He referred to the fact that Tabor had secured the arrest of Ceiling Contractor Smaith, of which event, and of Mr. Smaith's holding in $50,000 bends, news reached here last evening. The Counties are as a unit in saying that Tabor had committed political hari-kar in doing this just on the eve of the Convention, and most of the Tammanutes indorse it had required.

Secretary John C. Sheehau, of the New Aqueduct Commission, however, did not share these views.

views.

Mr. Sheehan is the Tammany leader of the district, but he comes from Buffalo and is a personal friend of the Attorney-General.

"Tabor." he says. " will be nominated without one vote from New York City, but I don's see how Tammany can help going for him. All of this talk about the Assembly calling is besh. The whole opposition comes from the Counties, who are mad because Lowber Smith was knocked out by Gilroy.

Mrs. Green's Swallowed Set of Teeth Cut of Her Stomach.

[Special to the Evaniso wonld.]

Bridge Bri

this morning.

Emigration Commissioner Ridgway and Subway Commissioner Daniel L. Gibbins came through on the flyer.

At an early hour to-day the crowds began to wend their way to the big Alhambra Rink, where the Convention was to be held, and which has been appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The place was soon filled with those fortunate enough to possess tickets, while the street about it was crowded with anxions haveods who had come to town confidently expect g to have a pm strong enough to secure a ticket from their delegate friends and were compelled to hear the ban l, the speeches and the appliance from the utside.

The temporary organization will probably be The temporary organization will probably be made permanent.

William F. Sheehan is credited with having the platform stowed awa in his inside pocket.

But a few "avored ones had seep it this morning, but it is said by them to be satisfactory in every regard, even to the tariff plank.

At 11 octock it began to be apparent that the sacrifice of Taher and Wemple was not to be made without opposition.

It was said the opposition came from Allany, and Schater John Foley, who as been very sanguine all along, as the hour for the Convention to be called to order approached began to shake in his boots.

to be called to order approached began to shake in his boots.

Tammany Hall had been in session at its headquarters in the Leland for two hours, and not a breath of its doings came from behind the closed doors.

The Kings County delegation, a number of whom announced themselves for Foley last evening, was found to have solidified under orders for Tabor.

Hill men from up the State shook their heads wisely and said that both Tabor and Wemple would be nominated.

Tammany Hall had been won over, they asserted.

Americans at the Puris Exposition IN CARLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. Pants, Oct. 1. - The American Legation has een collecting statistics of the Exposition for the benefit of the promotors of the New York Fair of 1892, A careful estimate shows that there have been 50,000 American visitors to the Exposition, and that they must have spent in Paris 250,000,000

Lecture by Mrs. Delegate Barry. Mrs. L. M. Barry, General Inspector of Women's Work, of the Knights of Laber, and who accompanied the delegation of workingmen to the Paris Exposition, will lecture, under the anspices of the Working Women's Society, at Nillson Hall next Friday evening on 'The condition of working women abroad as com-pared with that of American working women.' The lecture will be free.